The total number of cabin and steerage passengers landed at the port of New York during the year 1906 by the trans-Atlantic steamship lines was 1,159,551. In 1905, 992,065 were landed, which gives the year just ended the record by a margin of

One of the big surprises is promised in the section devoted to mines, metallurgy and chemical industries. says one writer. Exhibits are being prepared to show the enormous natural resources which can be profitably developed in Ireland. Immense seams of coal have recently been found in North Antrim. Professor Cole, of the Geological and survey department of Ireland, says that in this district alone there are 55,000 tons of coal, 150,000,000 tons of rich iron ore and an enormous deposit of fire clay, the value of which can hardly be estimated. A showing of these holders over 80 years of age who have resources will be one of the great features of the exhibition. Besides the coal there are no less than 33,-972,000,000 tons of peat fuel in Ireland that only need better means of ing a new era in life insurance histransportation to develop into a colossal national asset, It has been found that peat loam yields very fine surance is said to be the most liberal crops of tomatoes and is unsurpassed for the cultivation of bulbs. In ad- trial insurance company. dition to the numerous uses to which it can be put in its raw state, many valuable by-products are manufactured from it.

They are playing politics some in the house these days, says a Washington writer. There is a bill before the house judiciary committee, called the Hepburn-Dolliver bill. It is a measure strongly favored by the temperance element for it places shipments of liquors under the state law as soon as they reach the borders of the state into which they are consigned. The brewers are, and have been for years, fighting this bill tooth and toe-nail. They claim it is backed by 2; Colonel E. A. Stevens, Democrat, 16; the whiskey men whose liquor being put up in smaller packages can be smuggled into a state where barrels and cases of beer would be easily detected by the authorities. They are supported by the German-American alliance, which, through its officers and committees have flatly told the judiciary committee that the passage of the bill would be regarded by all German-Americans as a blow to personal liberty. The republicans, who are in the majority in the committee and in the house are therefore in a delicate position-between the brewers and the German-American alliance, on the one side, and the prohibitionists on the other. The democrats are helping to confuse their opponents by insisting the bill shall be reported, thus trying to force the republicans to offend either one or the other of the two contending forces,

HEARD IN PASSING.

"Do you know that our climate is changing?" said the scientist. "Yes," answered the displeased citizen, "but there is no satisfaction in that. It always manages to change from bad to worse."-Washington Star.

Homesick cowboy in New York amused himself by shooting cherries out of cocktail glasses. Before his cartridges gave out he had done about $399 damage and the patrol wagon was called. Doubtful if his mesickness has been cured at that. Bridgeport Post.

"She is a pentagon." "You mean a 'paragon,' don't you?" "No, I do not. When you call a woman a paragon it means you can't see anything but her good side. But when you call her a pentagon, it means you can see at least four other sides!"-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The ever-ready gun was whipped out at New Haven Friday evening with the usual result. When will the seriousness of the concealed weapon evil strike deep enough in the hearts of our law makers and prompt them to put on the statute books a law that will go a long ways towards preventing murder?-New London Day.

If out of the scores of measures ed in various state legislatures this winter to suppress corrupt lobbying a law can be framed that will accomplish the purpose it will be exceedingly fortunate. The vote of a nember on the floor of either house belongs to his constituents. He has no more right to use it for his personal ends or to sell it than he has to appropriate money entrusted by them to his keeping. The profes-sional lobbyist is, as Governor Folk said in his last message, the enemy of popular representative govern-ment. Every vote cast in a legisla-tive body upon any other consideration than the good of the state at large and the welfare of the district represented marks, to that extent, the fallure of government of the people, by the people and for the peo-ple.—Torrington Register.

LIBERAL POLICIES.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Co

Distributed Big Dividends. A $2,000,000 dividend to all policyholders has been declared by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company for the year 1907. This company, which has always been noted for the liberal policy on which it is managed, has already distributed in dividends to its policyholders about $10,000,000 in the last eight years, and the new dividend of $2,000,000 will bring its voluntary disburse-ments to policyholders up to the immense sum of $12,000,000. On all industrial whole life policies dated prior to January 1, 1903, a dividend equivalent to four weeks' premiums, or about 8 per cent of the premiums for the year, has been declared. This dividend will amount to $1,000,000, and in the distribution profits will be included all holders of life policies in those companies which have been consolidated with the Metropolitan.

A further mortuary dividend of another million has been declared in the industrial department. This applies to all death claims incurred during the year ending December 31, 1907, where the policy has been in force over five years. In the case of death claims, the dividend has been apportioned according to the age of the policy. If the policy has been in force five years, the beneficiary will be entitled to a dividend of 5 per cent, where it has been in force ten years the dividend is 10 per cent, and so on up to twenty-five years, when the dividend will equal 25 per cent of the claim.

Other benefits which the officers of the company have brought about for the policyholders are the increase in value of all industrial policies six months from their date, and the liberty which is given to all policypaid premiums for 15 years or more to receive the face value of the policy in cash or a full paid-up policy. In financial circles this action of the Metropolitan is looked upon as marktory, and the voluntary conversion by the company of whole life policies into endowments or fully paid-up inconcession ever made by any indus-
